Message from the CEO

Charters Towers is an exciting place to be at the moment with unparalleled development activity and projects underway, together with associated community building.

Coupled with this, Council has a unique opportunity to support our people and our organisation by articulating a clear vision, developing a positive and nurturing culture and articulating purpose and priorities.

My leadership ethos is based on the following key aspirations:

- Communication - you will be committed to clear, concise and honest communication with all staff and Councillors as well as being a good listener.
- Empowerment - you will be willing to let go of the reins and empower your teams to excel at what they do best while providing advice, support and removing barriers.
- Caring Culture - you will create an environment where everyone's opinion is valued and heard and will put health, safety and happiness first.
- Continuous Improvement - you will always be looking to improve the way we do things and provide opportunities for cross-team collaboration to achieve change over time.
- Ethics and Integrity - you will demonstrate strong moral principles such as respect, impartiality, social responsibility, transparency and honesty.

If you believe that you would thrive, add value and contribute to this vision for our organisation, I encourage you to apply for this role.

Thank you for considering this opportunity.

We respectfully acknowledge Gugu Badhun, Gudjala, Jangga, Birriah and Warrgamay as the Traditional Owners of the Charters Towers Region, the custodians of the land and waters, on which we work, live and play. We pay respects to the broader First Nations community and to Elders, past, present and emerging and acknowledge their continuing culture and contribution to the life of the region.

The Role

Charters Towers is located in the north-eastern region of Queensland, approximately a 90-minute drive from Townsville. It offers a relaxed and friendly lifestyle, with a warm and dry climate that is ideal for outdoor activities. Residents enjoy a range of amenities, including shops, cafes, parks and recreational facilities. The town also has a strong community spirit, with regular events and festivals that bring people together. Overall, living in Charters Towers offers a peaceful and enjoyable experience, with a unique blend of history, nature and modern conveniences.

Position Overview

The Manager Regional Development is responsible for providing strong leadership and strategic direction across planning, economic development, regulatory services and compliance functions within Charters Towers Regional Council. The role requires the management of resources, overseeing development applications and ensuring high-quality community engagement and service delivery, all while fostering a positive and innovative department culture.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead and develop a high-performing team, ensuring a strong customer service focus and fostering a positive, collaborative culture within both the planning and regulatory teams.
- Oversee the council's role in preparation and management of renewable energy projects to support the Council's sustainability goals.
- Conduct a comprehensive review and optimisation of the Development Application (DA) process to improve efficiency and outcomes.
- Provide strategic and operational support to senior management, contributing to organisational improvements and long-term planning.
- Ensure compliance with relevant legislation and deliver high-quality service to the community and stakeholders.

Key Projects

The Manager Regional Development will be involved in several internal projects including:

- Updating and amending the current planning scheme to align with current legislation and community needs.
- Developing and reviewing the infrastructure charging framework to ensure it supports sustainable growth.
- Leading the transition of council's TechnologyOne enterprise software to a cloud-based upgraded version to enhance operational efficiency.

Opportunities & Challenges

The Manager Regional Development role presents both exciting opportunities and significant professional challenges. One of the key challenges is managing compliance activities, particularly in balancing regulatory obligations with efficient service delivery. Working closely with the Compliance Officer, ensuring adherence to local laws while maintaining high customer service standards will require strong leadership and oversight. Additionally, the ongoing growth in industry and population poses both an opportunity and a challenge, as the need for efficient development planning services, well-planned infrastructure and sustainable development continues to rise.

Opportunities in this role include the potential to shape and support large-scale projects, such as the Greenvale Defence Project (ASMTR), where essential infrastructure will be critical for success. The role also offers the chance to engage with the proponents and community on renewable energy developments in the region, an exciting and evolving area that will allow the department to contribute to innovative and sustainable solutions for the region's future.

Stakeholder Engagement

The Manager Regional Development will play a key role in stakeholder engagement, handling community concerns and ensuring effective communication with residents and businesses. With a new mayor focused on active community engagement, the Manager will lead consultation meetings and work closely with stakeholders to address issues, gather feedback and ensure the Council's initiatives align with community needs and expectations.

The Team

The Manager Regional Development oversees a team of eight direct reports, including an Economic Development Officer, Regulatory Services Coordinator, Plumbing Inspector, Planning and Development Compliance Officer and two Administrative Officers, with two vacant Planner positions. This diverse group of employees, from varying backgrounds and experience levels, work well together, fostering a collaborative and supportive environment. They are highly capable and dedicated to delivering results, making them a strong and effective team for achieving the department's goals.

The Culture

Charters Towers Regional Council has a positive culture that is characterised by an authentic, personal connection born from living in a tight-knit community. The team has strong, established relationships, with regular social club and staff gatherings. This is underpinned with the CEO's commitment to ensuring safety and a positive culture within the organisation.

Qualifications, Skills & Attributes

- Relevant tertiary qualifications in urban planning, economics or a related field.
- Proven experience in leading and managing teams in areas such as economic development, planning and regulatory services.
- Expertise in developing and implementing strategic and operational plans aligned with organisational goals.
- Ability to drive and manage change and continuous improvement initiatives effectively.
- Strong skills in engaging with the community and stakeholders to provide high-quality customer service and expert advice.
- Competence in managing financial, human and physical resources, including budget preparation and monitoring.

Council Employee Benefits

Charters Towers Regional Council offer challenging and rewarding career paths that encourage improvement, employee development, training and career progression. They understand the importance of family life and the needs of employees looking for a work/family life balance.

Salary Package Information:

- Base Salary: $140,000
- 12% Superannuation
- Council provided vehicle
- Relocation Assistance per Council policy

Further benefits of the role:

- Salary Packaging
- 17.5% Annual Leave Loading
- Five weeks Annual Leave
- 15 days Personal Leave
- Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- Development and training opportunities
- Council supplied mobile phone
- Professional Association Membership
